Hello My Mutual Family,
Our 137th Annual Convention exceeded all my expectations. Thank you to all of you for your contributions! Preparation for this wonderful event began many months ago with selecting the date, the venue, and holding committee meetings to choose our speakers, educational classes and the entertainment. Once the big picture was in place, planning continued throughout the year fine-tuning all the large and small details. Never in a million years did I ever envision the final product we created. What an incredibly educational and fun event!

Serving as IAMIC chairman has been an honor and privilege for me. I am very grateful for the opportunity to work with our members to make our association stronger together.

I have so many wonderful memories from this year and truly appreciate your willingness to share your experience, knowledge, and friendship with me and other members of our association. In addition to the expert leadership of Jackie Rakers, member participation is what makes IAMIC successful. Our volunteers generously donate their time, effort and knowledge for the benefit of our association. This year, we not only had our reliable volunteers but we had several first time volunteers! Together they made a huge impact on the success of our IAMIC events and convention. Volunteering is such a necessary and rewarding experience. Your efforts are so appreciated.

To me, our theme "We are Family" describes our association perfectly. IAMIC provides the educational programs we need to run our individual companies successfully. As members, we're here for each other with helpful suggestions and guidance. I think we all have felt the comfort of knowing the answer is only a phone call away, just like a family.

Our theme for 2019 is "Charting the Course." Chair-Elect Mary Jo Robison will guide our membership in the direction of her vision to make our association even stronger than we are today. I know her year as Chair will be as educational and rewarding for her as this year has been for me.

Working with you and serving with you has been a true pleasure for me. I thank you for allowing me the privilege of serving as IAMIC Chairman for 2018. ❖

IAMIC Anti-Trust Statement

The purpose of IAMIC is to promote the best interests of the mutual insurance community, and particularly the best interests of policyholders of mutual insurance companies. To this end, IAMIC programs and activities are planned and implemented with the objective that policy holders will benefit from the best products and services.

It is not the intention of IAMIC to provide a forum for standardizing products or rates, dividing markets, fixing profit levels, or categorizing customers to whom insurance products may be sold.

If you have any concerns about the prohibited activities in connection with any IAMIC activities, please contact the president or any IAMIC Board member immediately.

From the Executive Director's Desk

As we close 2018 and prepare to Chart our Course for 2019, we reflect back upon the journey and the many accomplishments of the Association.

"WE ARE FAMILY" was our Chairman, Karen Williams', theme and in 2018 we brought our membership together in many ways. While we had a lot of fun with a 1970's themed networking event at convention (see pages 15-16 for some fun photos and sing Sister Sledge's song while you view them!), joining together as "family" meant so much more than dancing and laughing—it meant sharing knowledge and ideas, helping each other succeed, and cheering loudly when they do!

A huge shout out to all our Annual Golf Outing participants and especially our Chair, Chris Feldt. This year's event was cancelled just after it began—with a downpour. Everyone remained in great spirits and the donations still funded the Joe Reid Scholarship. Some fun photos are on page 20-21.

Our convention was held at a new venue (actually a renovated OLD venue), the Péré Marquette Marriott Hotel. The education was phenomenal as were the networking events. Our committee created a wonderful balance of fun, education and entertainment.

The Leadership Retreat was held with our peers from Wisconsin, where we successful helped build many new friendships. One of the greatest things about our industry is our willingness to share knowledge, and our leadership retreat was the perfect opportunity to refine those leadership skills while softly reminding us of some tried and true abilities to enhance our teamwork. While this event was a huge success for those that attended, our board of directors has decided we will make this an every other year event. Our goal is to limit the meetings out of the office for our very busy managers.

2019 HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!

We have great things charted for this year's journey—a new website—a new logo—a new strategic plan for our Association. You will see webinars and many online resources readily available to members. Our focus is always YOU—our members, and this year we are working hard to help you be the best YOU there can be. Stay tuned for more details coming soon!

This takes commitment on your part, too—did you know that 98% of companies that had to merger in the last 10 years did not participate in Educational opportunities! We can provide value, but it's up to you to get the information to the managers, staff and directors so they can take advantage of it. I challenge you to encourage one extra person to attend any event this year!

Our Education and Convention committees have already begun developing quality education programs, as well as a fun and entertaining 2019 Convention for you. You will not be disappointed, plan now to join us in August.

As always, it was pleasure being your Executive Director—part of your FAMILY—during 2018. Heartfelt relationships that will last a lifetime. My wish for you is health, happiness, and friendships that warm your heart. ❖

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

Jackie

Jackie Rakers, IOM

IAMIC can provide value, but it's up to you to get the information to the managers, staff and directors so they can take advantage of it. I challenge you to encourage one extra person to attend any event this year!

IAMIC/WAMIC Leadership Retreat

Our speaker, Dodie Gomer

Many thanks to speaker Dodie Gomer for facilitating an informative and thought-provoking retreat, focusing on leadership skills, teamwork, and forming new relationships with colleagues from Wisconsin.

Some Take-Aways . . .

We have all taken numerous leadership classes and this refresher course identified there are FIVE leadership styles -

Survey for the Most Useful Tool

Coaching.....	8.70%
Edit (Always using a red pen to find something wrong).....	4.35%
Vision (Help your staff see the end results).....	60.87%
Listening (what is staff saying that can make a difference).....	56.52%
User Guide (instructions only—figure it out).....	4.35%

Comments from attendees:

- "Have a clear vision and make sure everyone knows/understands this vision. And they should know the who/what/where/why/how parts of the vision."
- "I need to be a better listener."
- "I liked Dodie's suggestions for confrontation. She was a great speaker!"
- "Networking is always the best."
- "I took away several things—this was one of the best that I have been to. Very interactive and great networking"
- "Allan McDonald's example made me realize that the person answering our phones can set up the credibility of our staff by their comments and commitments to our skills. Training our entire staff to fine tune these skills can turn a difficult situation in our industry into a success. YES, it can be that easy!"

The Scavenger Hunt lead them through the streets of Peoria along the riverfront as they solved riddles that helped decipher the code word used to gain access into the "speak easy" Tannins & Hops for an enjoyable evening of fun and food!

SURVEY SAID: 100% Enjoyed the Fun Evening

One of the goals of this event was to help FIND A FRIEND and each attendee now has contacts for someone new in our industry! Survey Said: 100% Made a new friend! ❖

2018 Award Winners

LAUTUM AWARD:

Whitey Patton, Patton & Company

Presented by Jackie Rakers, IAMIC Executive Director

Whitey Patton, owner of Patton & Company, is the first Associate member to receive the prestigious LAUTUM Award. The nomination for Patton stated, "While working with Whitey, I have witnessed his constant support of the Mutual Industry and, specifically, the Association. He shares his knowledge with IAMIC members to improve their daily operations." From the Executive Director, Jackie Rakers, "Whitey is well respected by his customers." Tony Koehler, Manager of Camp Point Mutual, said he runs ideas past Whitey before approaching his board of directors when looking at the financial growth options.

His daughter Amy tried to be objective when asked for her comments, but that was easier said than done. Amy said, "when it comes down to it, my dad's passion is working with the people of the farm mutual industry. When I went to work with him 22 years ago, he told me that you won't meet any better people than the folks that represent the Mutuals. He was right, but he forgot to include himself in that statement." Our industry agrees, we are proud to recognize him with this honor. ❖

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD:

Tyler Vancura, Wisconsin Reinsurance Company

Presented by Karen Williams, IAMIC Chair

Tyler Vancura earned this award by consistently stepping up to help our Association at each event. He served on the Education Committee, worked registrations, lead round table discussions, and helped on the back side of the event to set up and tear down. In addition, Tyler has shared his knowledge with our members when he presented a class on Catastrophe Planning at Convention. Jackie Rakers, Executive Director for the Association said, "Tyler was always asking, "How can I help you?" and he meant it. Regardless of the task I needed assistance with, he stepped in to help and always with a smile. I love when he works our registration desk because I knew he will treat our members with a warm welcome and be willing to help with any of their needs. Tyler also stayed after each event to help me tear down and load the car, a true gentleman. I really appreciated his extra efforts and it was my privilege and honor to give this award to Tyler." ❖

2018 Award Winners

West Point Mutual has served Northern Illinois for 146 years by adapting to changes in the industry. Over the last five years, they have adopted a disaster plan, implemented a new inspection program and significantly increased policyholder surplus. They redeveloped their website to include online quoting for their agents, expanding billing options, and meeting the needs of their business partners.

Recognizing that their leadership could strengthen their company, board members enrolled in a national certification program that is geared toward Farm Mutuals. Manager, Annie Kurth, said, "Because of the leadership provided by the Board and the Management Team, West Point has made some exciting progress over the last few years, better positioning itself to meet the challenges and continually changing environment of the mutual insurance business while maintaining personalized service with a small-town feel for our neighbors and friends."

Following the goals, objectives and action plans established in their five-year strategic plan, West Point has been able to capitalize on opportunities and strengthen its position in the marketplace to better serve their policy holders. We proudly recognize them for their progressive efforts. ❖

2018 Fun Run for a Great Cause: IAMIC Raises Over $2,000 for Fishing Has No Boundaries

THANK YOU ~ THANK YOU ~ THANK YOU

The Capital City Chapter of Fishing Has No Boundaries would like to give our heartfelt thanks to the members of the Illinois Association of Mutual Insurance Companies for their generous donations to our organization. On September 22 we held our second annual fishing event on Lake Springfield. 45 participants from the disabled community joined us for a day of fishing, friendship and fun! Participants came from the Mary Bryant Home for the Blind, SPARC, Brother James Court and Help at Home. Other participants that were independent of group homes came from as far as Peoria to the west and another group travelled all the way from Danville to join us.

Over 100 volunteers made this event possible. The participants enjoyed 3 meals and took two different trips out on the lake to catch fish. Hundreds of fish were caught and even more memories and friendships were made. This event would not have been possible without your support. We truly appreciate it!

Sincerely,

Mary Ann and Jeff Gebauer

Message from the Chair-Elect

Mary Jo Robison
LaPrairie Mutual

Mary Jo Robison

Well, it happened again!

What a great convention and trade show IAMIC had this year. We were given the opportunity to educate ourselves while having some fun along the way. Plus, the time spent networking with our peers was so valuable.

The golf outing and trapshooting were a great way to kick off convention. The banquet, entertainment, guest speakers, and educational sessions were wonderful. Each year, the committees do a great job preparing for our convention. I would like to thank each and every one of you for all of your hard work. Karen Williams did an outstanding job as Chairman, too. If you haven't taken the opportunity to attend convention, please consider joining us next year. You won't be disappointed!

The theme I have chosen for 2019 is "Charting the Course." We all know how important it is to establish a course, work well with your crew, and bring your ship to its destination.

With 2019 on the horizon, our Executive Director, Jackie and the board of directors are working hard to serve our farm mutuals and chart our course. We attended a two-day strategic planning session earlier this year and came away with some great ideas for the future. We will soon be busy planning for our Claims Seminar, Underwriting Seminar, and Regional meetings.

These events offer education specific to the Mutual industry and we want to see you attend. If finances keep you from attending, IAMIC Educational scholarship applications are available for those interested in applying. Selected applicants can earn up to $500 for expenses incurred including travel.

If you haven't attended Legislative Day or the Congressional Contacts Program, please consider joining us in 2019. Applications for the Joe Reid Scholarship are available for members interested in attending the Congressional Contacts Program in Washington, D.C., and we also offer a scholarship to assist those wanting to attend Legislative Day in Springfield. It's imperative to keep the lines of communication open with our legislators and the in-person meetings allow us to discuss any concerns or issues that affect the farm mutual industry. This is also an excellent opportunity for us to build relationships with our leaders and educate them about our wonderful and unique industry.

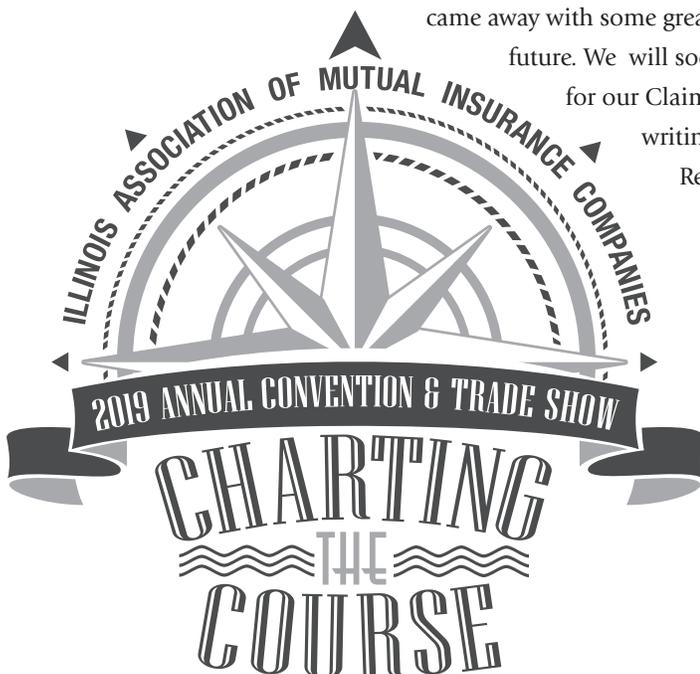

During convention I issued a challenge to my fellow mutual members asking you to show your community how much your farm mutual cares. Whether you volunteer, raise money, or help others in anyway, the reward will be great. Let us always remember those less fortunate and work at making our communities a better place to live.

As you are "Charting the Course" in the next year and attending upcoming IAMIC events, let IAMIC help you reach your destination and anchor your ship where it can best serve your insureds and agents. Please remember IAMIC is here in the port ready to assist you.

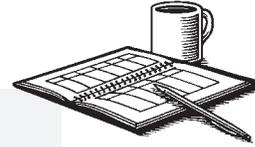

In the New Year, may your right hand always be stretched out in friendship and never in want.

Sincerely,

Mary Jo

OVER A CENTURY OF SUCCESS

For generations, Farmers Mutual Hail has been known for its integrity, commitment to customer service, and concentrated focus in its niche markets. From our involvement in the formation of NAMIC, to our first reinsurance contract in 1915, we have enjoyed a long tradition of providing reinsurance protection to regional and farm mutual insurance companies.

Our longevity is a testament to our success, and a foundation for our future.
